Dedication

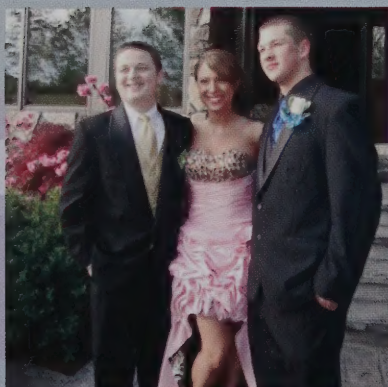

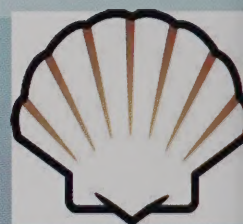

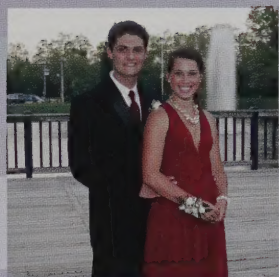

Jim Beauregard

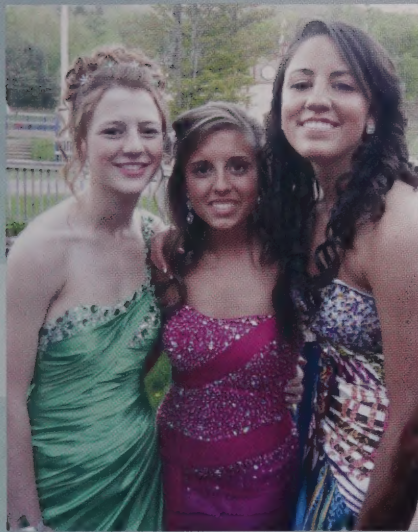

Mr. James Beauregard is not only an athletic director for the school, he is a role model and a friend to each student-athlete. Over the past 10 years, Mr. Beauregard has spent endless amounts of hours working on the fields and preparing the schedules, always making sure that everything is ready when each sports season begins. There will never be a time when he is not at the Activity Center. No matter what time of day it is he will be there, even if it is just to walk his dog, a community pet to all of the students. Aside from being the athletic director, Mr. Beauregard is also the head baseball coach for the varsity team. He is a great mentor for not only the athletes but, also for students who go to the AC just to hang out. His all-around positive attitude and sense of humor always leaves the students laughing. There will never be a day when Mr. Beauregard is in a bad mood, unless someone steals his golf cart. The infamous golf cart is his typical means of transportation, and even though the students may make fun of him for it, it allows him to get to the fields quickly and get his job done more efficiently. From maintaining the fields to organizing the book donations, Mr. Beauregard has had a positive impact on the St. Bernard's community and he will continue to do so in many years to come.

The senior class has enjoyed their four years at St. Bernard's High School. They are looking forward to ending their high school careers with the Christmas Dance at the Colonial Hotel, the Father/Daughter Mother/Son dance at Oak Hill Country Club, and the Prom at the Sheraton. The class officers hope to plan a fun senior trip in the spring. The class of 2012 has accomplished a lot as a class and will leave their legacy of weekly Muffin Madness that occurred every Wednesday morning. Senior year has been both a time to look toward the future and also a time to reflect on the past four years as a proud Bernardian.

In our first year of High School, all of us in the Class of 2015 have settled into the St. Bernard's community very nicely. Various members of our class have been involved in many different activities, like Drama and Ski Programs, Campus Ministry, and year-round sports, just to name a few. Also, we've led and sponsored school-wide events, including the Catholic Schools Week Mass and the Spring Musical. We've begun great fundraisers, with a 2015 movie night and selling class t-shirts and hoodies, both very successful, with all proceeds going toward future class events.

Although it's early in our four-year ride here as Bernardians, we know every day further prepares us for the future. It's been a great first year for the St. Bernard's Class of 2015, and we're all very excited for the years to come.

We have so enjoyed watching you grow and mature during your high school years. Whether you were playing volleyball, making STB "greener" or lighting up the stage, we are proud of how you always shared your outgoing and giving spirit unselfishly. We love you and can't wait to watch you and support you as you experience college.

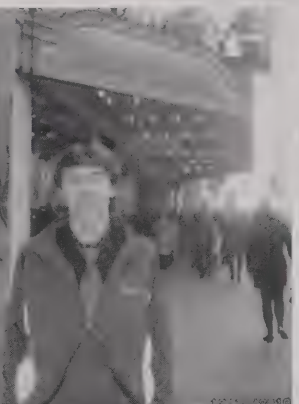

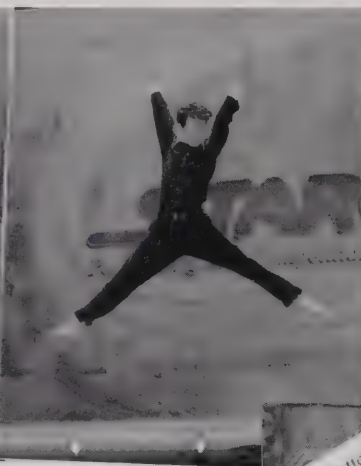

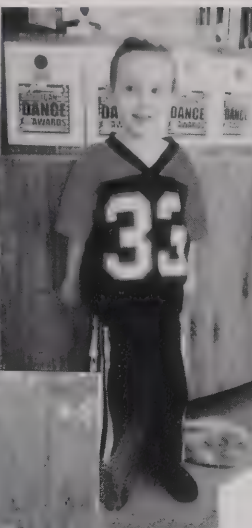

Love, Mom, Dad and Jonathan

My great adventure has begun
I may be small
But I've got giant plans

Congratulations Class of 2012!

To our son,
John-Paul Huntoon Jr. (AKA Johnny)

Congratulations! 14 years of St. Bernard's (PreK through 12th grade), now you are graduating as the class of 2012! Where did those 18 years go? We are so very blessed to have you as our son. You have brought so much joy and happiness in our lives. Watching you as that very outgoing "little guy" going into Pre-K to the young man you've become; very confident, determined, and hard working. You never settle for second best! Remember to always let God into your life. Stay the way you are, be your own person, and you will go far in life. Follow your dreams; there are way too many people with regrets. Anything is possible if you work hard enough. Follow what your heart says! Do what makes you happy. You are the most level headed 18 year old we know. You will go far in life, and we will be routing you on every step of the way.

It takes a very special person to have the guts to follow their dreams, and that's you! We are so very proud of you! From Billy Elliot call-backs, to the opening number at the Rockettes, to having Shelly Hutchinson from "So You Think You Can Dance" Ukraine doing your auditioning solo; you know what you want and go for it! School, dance, whatever you do you give it 100%. You know how to have a very busy schedule, and do great at all you're doing.

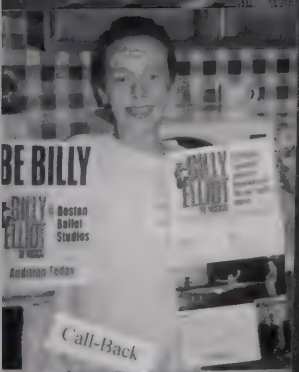

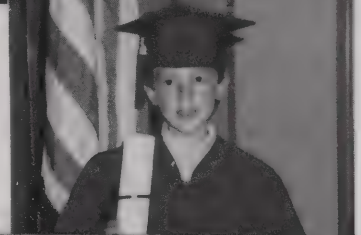

That's life. Full of good and bad, surprises; never a dull moment. You've got what it takes to handle it all. Please note, we will be here for you whenever you need us. You are truly an amazing person; you have that personality that draws people to you. We thank God for blessing us with such an amazing son. We are truly blessed! Enjoy your college days, because they will be wonderful!

With all our love,
Love you tons

Love: "your family" Mom, Dad, Nickers, Peanut-Butter, Kita, and Leonard xoxoxo

From the first day you came into our lives you've made us smile. Instantly we fell in love with your chubby cheeks, your curly hair, your little raspy voice, and your sense of humor. Derek, you have grown into a wonderful young man, one we are so very proud of. Where ever life takes you and whatever it has in store, we know you will work hard. We are always going to be here for you, supporting every decision you make. We wish you so much happiness in the journey ahead...and remember...Wherever you go, go with all your heart!

We love you so much Tee Too!

Congratulations Johnny

My Grandson John-Paul, what does he stand for,
Joy, Obsession, Honesty and Niceness

You are everything any parent and Grandparent could ask for. I knew from the moment you were born you were unique

To know you is to love you. Your determined, strong and modest. I have seen all the medals, accomplishments, trophy's and awards but never a big head. Always willing to keep going no matter how hard it got, no matter the challenge, but most of all in this plastic world you are real. you know what you want and are going to go for it. I am so proud. See you on Broadway

God bless and guide you
A Very Proud Na-Na

Congratulations Jack!

We are so proud of all of your accomplishments so far - and we know that there are so many more to come! Aim high and don't be afraid to ask for the help of those around you - because we all want your success as well.

Lots of Love,

Mom, Dad, Molly, Erin and Michael

Johnny,

You've changed so much from that smelly, little boring baby brother I once said you were. Now you're taller than me, and graduating from high school! I can't believe you are going to college in the fall; it makes me feel so old! / I know you will do great in college because of your hard work and determination. Continue to speak your mind, don't let people push you around or influence you. If they don't like the way you are, they don't deserve to be in your life.

Thanks for being an amazing little brother: even though you usually act like my older brother. Thanks for making me so proud of you; the Billy Elliot on Broadway callback, winning a title with "The King of Old Broadway" at ADA, and winning numerous national titles; just to name a few.

You better text me all the time when you're gone. Expect a visit every other week-end! I don't know what I'll do with out you here everyday. You're one of my best friends, and I'm going to miss you like crazy!

Love: Sis (Virginia)

CONGRATULATIONS JOSEPH!

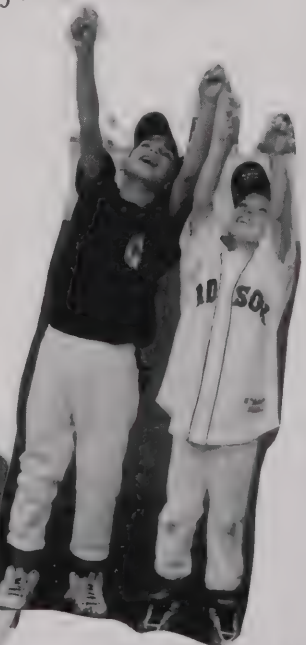

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow,
 And each road leads you where you want to go,
 And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,
 I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.
 And if one door opens to another door closed,
 I hope you keep on walkin' till you find the window,
 If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile,
 I hope you never look back, but ya never forget,
 All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
 I hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
 And you help somebody every chance you get,
 Oh, you find God's grace, in every mistake,
 And you always give more than you take.
 But more than anything, yeah, and more than anything,
 My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
 Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
 You never need to carry more than you can hold,
 And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
 I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
 Yeah, this, is my wish.
 My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
 Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
 You never need to carry more than you can hold,
 And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
 I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
 Yeah, this, is my wish.
 This is my wish
 I hope you know somebody loves you
 May all your dreams stay big
 -Rascal Flatts

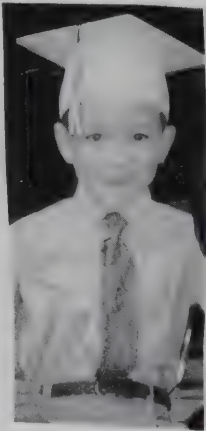

Joseph,

Wow, here we are again, two down and one to go! The years have gone by way too fast.....it was just yesterday you were a sweet little boy who's goal in life was simply to be taller than his sister. Now you're a handsome young man that has grown much taller than your entire family. You have brought so much happiness and LAUGHTER into this family. We will always cherish the memories of the times we've shared. We are so proud of your many accomplishments and we are looking forward to see where your new journey takes you. Wherever life takes you, know that you are loved.

Love,

Dear Isabelle, Cody & the Class of 2012,

May God give you:

For every storm, a rainbow,

For every tear, a smile,

For every care, a promise,

And a blessing in each trial.

A faithful friend to share,

And an answer for each prayer.

Your bright smile and beauty are only a small aspect of the beautiful young woman you have become. You are caring, loving and good hearted. The determination that you have shown in dance, school and all you set out to accomplish amazes us. Follow your heart, dance like no one is watching, embrace your passion and be proud of all you have accomplished. As your parents we couldn't be more proud of you. As you go off to college and take on new challenges please remember we are always here for you.

We love you and wish you all the happiness and success.
